AMERICANS MUST LEARN TO DRESS

MARY GARDEN

New York, Aug. 4.—Though it isn't a generally known fact, Mary Garden's sister, Mrs. E. DeWitt Walsh, is a famous dress designer. That is to say she owns a shop wherein may be found the most gorgeous of evening wraps, blouses and robes. In fact, Mrs. Walsh's designs are so beautiful, and she is getting to be such a hobby in Paris, that her Parisian representatives have begged her to come over there and open a similar shop. And she's going, for:

"American women are the most frantic bargain hunters in the world," says she. "It's all tommyrot about their extravagance. The richest of them hesitate to pay $10, $25 or $50 more for an evening wrap just to know that it has been designed exclusively for them and is of the very finest of materials. They'd rather seek out a bargain shop and buy it there even if they know it will wear out quickly and isn't exclusive."

Mrs. Walsh is a prophet without honor in her own country, for her business here has been somewhat of a failure even though her creations are a delight. She is the one who is responsible for Mary Garden's superb clothes, having designed them herself.

FIRST REHEARSAL OF ELK BAND TO BE HELD TONIGHT

First rehearsal of the Saxophone band of the Elks will be held at 8 o'clock this evening. E. C. Eberhardt, chairman, has notified all those interested in joining to be on hand tonight. Twenty-seven have already signified their intention of joining, but it is hoped to increase the band to 40 pieces. A director and a name for the band will be selected at the meeting.

Commandery Columbia, No. 62, of the Knights Templar, will give a concert at the Elks' hall on the evening of Sept. 1. D. S. Simonds today notified Dan K. Brennan, exalted ruler of the Elks, that the 90-piece band will arrive on Tuesday, Aug. 31, and will entertain the Elks on Wednesday.

VANCE ON VACATION
M'INTYRE IN PULPIT

William B. McIntyre will be in charge of Sabbath services at the Oak Grove church next Sunday morning in the absence of Rev. J. L. Vance, who together with Mrs. Vance and sons, Donald and Frazier, leave this week for a month's motor trip through Pennsylvania. Prominent laymen will be in charge of the services each week during Rev. Vance's absence. The evening services will be dispensed with during the month, but morning services will be continued.

In its aim to obtain a 100 membership attendance to its Sunday school, the Oak Grove chapel last Sunday exceeded the goal with 105 attendance. A balloon was sent up in honor of the success. The names of the 15 students in Mrs. William Gobel's class were put in the balloon, because it was the best average during the last three months. The balloon sailed toward Sears, but its landing place was not known.

Missionary Society Hostess.

Mrs. E. A. Symon entertained the women's home missionary society of the First Methodist church yesterday afternoon at her summer cottage on Forty-second avenue and Fourteenth street. A business session was held and a short program given. The topic was Supply Work, and there were a number of committees appointed to look after the work. Short monologues were given, several of the members taking part and short articles were read on Utah, Alaska and on work among the Indians by Mrs. T. Smith, Mrs. W. A. Darling and Miss Ella Taylor. Mrs. Darling gave a delightful vocal solo "Memories of Other Days," with violin obligato by Mrs. J. L. Chaney. After the program a picnic supper was served cafeteria style on the lawn, about forty-five members being present. The next meeting of the society will be held Sept. 7 with Miss Ella and Jennie Taylor, 1714 Ninth avenue.

Hold Special Meeting.

The members of the R. P. club held a special meeting last evening at the home of Miss Helen Gould, 708 Seventh avenue, and decided to take new members into the club. It was also decided to hold a picnic at Campbell's island next Sunday. After the business session, dancing was enjoyed and a delicious luncheon was served. The next meeting will be held Aug. 17 at the home of Miss Ann Lefstein, 918 Fifth avenue.

Sponsor Ice Cream Sociable.

The Women of Mooseheart Legion No. 351 sponsored a delightful ice cream sociable last evening on the lawn of the H. H. Unverferth home, 1303 Third avenue. The lawn was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns, and bouquets of roses adorned the porch. During the evening musical numbers were given by a small orchestra, consisting of a violin, mandolin and two guitars. There were about three hundred fifty attending during the course of the evening, and a neat sum was realized. The organization is a new one in Rock Island and the affair last evening is one of the first sponsored by the members.

Shower On Miss Eng.

Miss Ruth Eng of Moline, who is to marry Jack Smith of La Grange, Mo., this month, was the honoree at a pre-nuptial shower given for her by the members of the D. L. club and a few other friends at the home of Mrs. Idolph Pearson, 912 Thirtieth street, last evening. Guessing contests occupied the evening hours. In one of the games Mrs. George Frank took the first prize and Miss Agnes Eng of Moline the consolation favor, while in the other the prizes went to Miss Hulda Peterson and Mrs. Ellen Gustafson of Moline.

Decorations were carried out in pink and blue shades, the chosen bridal colors, and garden flowers were used in abundance. A delicious coursed luncheon was served at the dining room table, which was centered with a large basket filled with gladioli and on the cloth was used ribbon streamers in the pink and white shades. Little Miss Phyllis Lind, dressed as a bride, brought in the basket containing the shower gifts. The basket was completely covered with golden glow and the gifts were for the bride-to-be's kitchen. There was also a box of silver. A number of other showers have been arranged for Miss Eng for the next few weeks.

DANCE HOSTESS
NEW PROFESSION

HAZEL ALLEN

New York.—College girls would do well to adopt being dance hostess as a profession. So says Miss Hazel Allen, dance hostess at the summer room garden of the Hotel McAlpin. "It's extremely pleasant work," says Miss Allen, "and it requires plenty of ingenuity and brain power."

"On with the dance" is going to prevail all through the summer. The dance is THE thing at the amusement resort. People are so tired of strikes, high prices and general troubles that they rush into the swirl of the dance to forget them."

Miss Allen says 10 times as many people dance now as compared to the number 10 years ago.

ing every morning of the 10 days while the afternoons are to be turned over to recreation, tennis, boating, swimming, golf, hikes, etc. In the evening there will be a short inspirational meeting, with prominent speakers, and each delegation will have special meetings to sum up the day's work and prepare their reports.

Preparations were also made last evening for a special stunt which the Rock Island group will put on on Sunday, when each Y. W. C. A. delegation is to present a stunt. The delegates will leave Friday morning, some going by train and some by automobile.

To Plan Picnic.

The Concordia Mutual Benefit league will hold an important business meeting this evening in the club rooms in the Immanuel Lutheran club building. Plans will be made at this time for the August picnic.

Entertains Villa Alumnae.

Miss Rosella Russell was hostess last evening to the members of the Tri-City Chapter Villa Alumnae at her home, 2765 Eighth-and-a-half avenue. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess at the small tables at the conclusion of the games. The next meeting will be held Sept. 7 at the home of Miss Marie Campana at 805 Twenty-eighth street.

Garlough-Campbell.

The marriage of Miss Ruby Campbell, daughter of Mrs. Ida M. E. Campbell of 1720 Pershing avenue, Davenport, to Laurence W. Garlough of that city, son of Thomas Garlough of Morrisburg, Ontario, Canada, was celebrated at 1 o'clock yesterday noon at the bride's home. Rev. A. Frank Houser of the Calvary Baptist church officiated before a company of 20 relatives and friends. There were no attendants. Miss Grace Smith played the nuptial music.

The bride wore a gown of white pussy willow silk made with a tunic banded in georgette crepe. The wedding veil was fashioned in a cap effect with ruffled tucks at the sides held with flowers and fastened with a beaded band across the forehead. Her flowers were roses and sweetpeas.

Decorations were in summer foliage and garden flowers, a banking of ferns forming the background for the improvised altar, while about the rooms were large bouquets of pink gladioli and blue corn flowers. There was a wedding luncheon following the ceremony and the bridal couple left on a short wedding trip. They will be at home after Oct. 15 in Moline.

The going away dress of the bride was a blue tricolet with blouse to match and Knox hat of satin in an early fall model.

The bride is a graduate of the Davenport school, and has been teaching the past year in the Madison school. Mr. Garlough is a foreman for Deere & Company of Moline. He holds a splendid war record, having been with the 4th division Canadian forces and in action in battles at Chambray, Arras and Amiens.

Plan for Homecoming.

Harry Baker of 2341 Seventh avenue, entertained a small company of city friends at a dinner last evening at the Elks hall.

Household Hints

Recipes for a Day.
Butterworth Pie.—Scant cup of brown sugar, two egg yolks, two tablespoons flour, one cup milk and two heaping tablespoons butter. Cook in double boiler till thick. Add one teaspoon vanilla. Fill pie crust with the custard, using the whites for meringue. This makes a delicious dessert.

Boneless Salt Codfish With Pork Scraps.—Cover one pound of boneless codfish with cold water and set it where it will heat gradually; change the water when it gets hot. Change the water four times. Place the fish on the stove shortly after breakfast and when preparing dinner it is just right to use. Cut one-third pound of salt pork, mixed lean and fat in half-inch squares and put them in a skillet over a moderate heat, when they are golden brown, drain water off the fish and shred fish into the skillet with the pork scraps. Keep hot.

Fill you serve, but do not cook any more. Season with pepper and salt if necessary.

Fruit Salad.—Make two cups of lemon-jello and while cooling cut celery, apples, cabbage and nuts in small pieces; add to jello and when jellied serve with whipped cream or salad dressing.

Summer Drinks.

Gingerale Highball.—Put two tablespoons finely cracked ice in each highball glass, add one or two teaspoons of fresh lime juice and fill glass with chilled gingerale. Serve at once.

Iced Coffee with Gingerale.—To make this unusual combination, pour a half cup of cold coffee in a glass, fill a fourth full of iced tea, then add a third of a cup of gingerale, stir quickly and serve. This is particularly good with cheese sandwiches.

Gingerale Punch.—One cup of sugar, one cup strong hot tea, two quarters cup orange juice, three to four thin slices orange, one third cup lemon juice, one quart gingerale, maraschino cherries. Pour the hot tea over the sugar and stir until sugar is dissolved. Add fruit juices and strain into punch bowl over a large piece of ice. Let stand about 20 minutes, add gingerale, orange slices and a few maraschino cherries. Serve immediately.
